

Lau, 19/02/2011 - 12:03

"Democracy does not end on election day. You do not elect a king to rule you for four years. Democracy begins on election day. You elect someone and then that person, that legislator or that governor is supposed to listen to you, to represent you, not to rule over you."

John Nichols

Source URL: <http://www.attac.is/node/159>